Grades, Leadership, Attitudes, Activities, Christian Influence Are Qualifications

Six seniors have been chosen to represent Trevecca Nazarene College in the 1960-61 volume of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Nominations are made by the student body and Administrative Committee. The college students cast ballots, selecting six of those nominated. The following qualifications are carefully considered: good grades, leadership, wholesome attitudes, activities, and positive Christian influence. The Administrative Committee evaluates and considers very carefully each nominee, taking into account the entire college career of each student.

Those elected are: Sylvia Young, Linda Taylor, Robert Mitchell, Phyllis Lobb, Martha Gray, and Raymond Cowan.

Raymond Pierce Cowan

Raymond Pierce Cowan, who is originally from Atlanta, Georgia, is the son of Rev. E. P. Cowan. His sister, LaNelle, attends Trevecca. They now reside at Lester Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee.

Upon graduation from high school Raymond attended Georgia Tech the first two quarters of his freshman year in college. He then came to Trevecca in 1958. When he enrolled at Trevecca he received the freshman scholarship of one hundred dollars for the remainder of his freshman year. In his junior year, he received the class scholarship of one hundred dollars, and the Tithers Incorporated Scholarship, from College Park, Georgia, of three hundred dollars.

During the three years Raymond has been at Trevecca, he has been active in several clubs. He has been a member of the following clubs: Christian Workers Association, Trevecca Athletic Association, Ministerial Association, Georgia Club, of which he was the chairman his junior year; and the Clio Society, of which he is the treasurer this year. He was also the treasurer of his Junior Class.

Raymond is a religion major and a history minor. Upon graduation he would like to do some graduate work at Vanderbilt University before going to Seminary. After he finishes his education Raymond would like to enter into the pastorate. His plans are not definite yet.

Linda Taylor, twenty, from Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Taylor. Linda has been an outstanding student, participating in many campus activities. As a freshman, she received a scholarship, and upon graduating from high school she received a Future Teacher's Scholarship.

As a sophomore, Linda served as managing editor of the Trev-

A Place For Christ

As you start a new year at Trevecca Nazarene College, perhaps you feel as though you are very heavily loaded with all the curricula of a college student. With all the rush of a busy day at T. N. C., it is important to give Christ first place. You must find this time for God. Your devotions with Christ should be as much a part of your schedule as your classes and other activities.

It is there, in the quietness of that hour, that Christ will meet your daily needs and provide strength and guidance for the day and for the days ahead. It would be very easy, even while attending a Christian college, to let insignificant things crowd out your daily devotional relationship with God. However, a student can find time, morning and evening, to meditate with God. It is up to you as to whether you will find this time, or whether you will be satisfied just to drift along, trying to work out for yourself the problems of the day. You cannot substitute anything else for your personal devotions with Christ.

It is good to have planned reading to follow in your Bible. Why not work out a systematic plan for your devotions? There are various devotional guides which will provide inspirational thoughts for the day.

Every precaution should be taken to see that one's vision of Christ is not lost. One's relationship with God must come first, and it is up to each individual to see that his Christian life grows deeper and stronger. In the busy life of a student, sufficient time can be found for daily devotions with Christ.

Why Choose A Small College?

Like the little fellow who stands, nickel clutched in fist, before the high, wide candy counter in blissful awe is the young person in quest of a suitable college to attend. When either choice is made there will be good reasons. One determining factor should be the size. Those who choose a small college may be the wiser. For here at last in a small college is the real school spirit to be found. The human warmth found here makes a decided difference from the cold, impersonal large university. Here at Trevecca everyone works with diligence to make our institution admired and respected.

On a small campus students and teachers alike can mingle and know each other better than the limits of a classroom acquaintance can afford. Professors are introduced to student problems first hand and are certainly better qualified to offer guidance. Hidden talents are discovered and old ones revived as every student finds a place to display his usefulness. Leadership in religion, politics, and sports blossoms into maturity much faster than in a larger school. Some people even think that you learn better since classes are smaller and professors can be more personally interested in the individual.

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." (Galatians 5:22-23)

Return Missionary Reviews Cuba Situation

By Nancy Leigh

The Rev. John Wesley Hall, missionary to Cuba, returned to the United States Friday morning, October 28, and arrived in Nashville on Sunday morning.

Mr. Hall, born in Oklahoma in 1917, and reared in New Mexico, is a graduate of Pasadena College and did post-graduate work at the University of Havana. He and his wife first went to the field in 1947. They were on furlough during the fiscal year of 1959-60, and Mr. Hall returned to the field in the summer of 1960.

Upon his return to Cuba, Missionary Hall found that a great change had taken place. Americans were no longer welcome, and slogans of opposition were in plain view. "Cuba, si; Yankee, no," comprised a huge number of the signs erected. "The Island of Cuba or Death" and "We Will Win" were others. Radios blared out the message that Yankees must "get out." In front of the Hall's house, Castro's regime had rented a building which they filled with army equipment.

Downtown, Mr. Hall met the same reaction. Inside the stores the employees stared at him with suspicion and followed him until he left the building. There was at first the natural temptation to be fearful, but he states, "The Lord told me plainly that He would be with me."

Mr. Hall tells in his own words that "Cuba is the headquarters of Communism in the Western Hemisphere." The method they are using is mob psychology, working on "hungry stomachs and ignorant people." Even though some of the Cuban people at last have come to the realization of their betrayal, they are now under Communist rule and can do very little about it. "Unless God undertakes," states Mr. Hall, "we are threatened by Cuba as a Communistic war base, but God is able."

Missionary Hall was, before his return, the treasurer of the Cuban District, Bible school director, and pastor of the church in Santa Clara. The church annex of Santa Clara is now being used for the spreading of Communistic propaganda among children of kindergarten age. Castro has not yet directly persecuted Protestant missions, but the Catholics have undergone some persecutions. On Saturday, October 29, all direct transportation between the United States and Cuba was closed.

Of the fifteen students enrolled in the Cuban Nazarene Bible School, all but one are from non-Christian homes. Each student has expressed a deep desire for the Halls to return to Cuba. Upon Mr. Hall's return to the United States, five students remained on the Bible school grounds, with one national pastor. The nationals have a council, which will keep the church work moving.

Apologies to Professor Sylvia Young. She was left out when the new faculty members were mentioned in the first paper. She has ten piano pupils.

Dr. and Mrs. Mackey Have Open House

The home of President and Mrs. Mackey was the center of attraction on the evening of October 22, 1960. The doors opened at six-thirty, and students, faculty members, and visitors were welcomed. All were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. Mackey and escorted on a tour of the beautiful nine-room home. When the tour was completed, punch and cookies were served. A fall arrangement of yellow and gold chrysanthemums decorated the table.

of the Ladies' Glee Club. Linda has been a member of the Music Club, Christian Workers Association, Future Teachers, and the T.A.A.

Outside the scholastic field, her interests include reading and music, especially piano. She also traveled in one of the trios representing Trevecca during the summer of 1959.

An education major, Linda plans to teach in the elementary grades in Davidson County following her marriage December 26 to Mr. Gene Cook, and graduation in June.

Sylvia Young

Sylvia Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Young, was born April 30, 1939, in Mobile, Alabama. She grew up with two sisters: Glenda, now a senior in high school, and Carol, a freshman at Trevecca. She graduated from Murphy High School in Mobile in 1957.

Throughout her college years Sylvia has taken an active part in many of the campus organizations. She has been a member of the C. W. A., the T. A. A., the Music Club, and the Alabama Club every year, and was in the A Cappella Choir during her freshman, sophomore, and junior years. In the A Cappella Choir she served as accompanist, and was presented with a letter during her junior year. During her sophomore year she was elected treasurer of the Future Teachers' Club, was a reporter on the Trev-Echoes staff, and took part in the Sophomore Class play. During her junior year she was elected vice-president of the Music Club, president of the Alabama Club, and secretary of the Residence Hall Council, and was selected as class editor of the Darda. She was presented with the special Attitude Award. She was also a member of the Literary Club. During her senior year she was re-elected secretary of the Residence Hall Council, was elected treasurer of the Literary Club, and is an assistant editor of the Darda.

Sylvia chose as her major and minor, piano and English, respectively. She will present a piano recital during the latter part of her senior year. During all four years of her college life she has been one of the voice accompanists, assisting in recitals during her freshman year. She now has ten piano pupils.

In the spiritual realm, one could certainly say that she has been successful. She was converted in February, 1952, and sanctified a short time later. She is a member of the Church of the Nazarene,

A Beatitude From The Psalms

By Bob Mitchell

"Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen."

One of the most important factors of worship is that of praise. In Psalms 41:13, David praises God by blessing the name of God and giving glory to God forever and forever.

In the present day there has been such a step-up in the pace of living that some men do not take time to worship God. The very important factors in the Christian experiences of meditation, prayer, and reading the Word of God have been somewhat forgotten. Much of what one accomplishes for the kingdom of God depends on the devotion one has to the things of God.

Why could one not make these a part of his life? Let each day find every Christian praising God with words, attitudes, and deeds. Our daily walk will be more consistent, our services more filled with power, and our attitudes more Christ-like if we take time to praise God.

and has attended three of the General Assemblies, experiences which she counts precious and treasures in her memory.

Phyllis Lobb

Out of the hills of Kentucky (Greensburg) comes Phyllis Lobb, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Lobb.

She received all of her primary education in Greensburg. Upon her graduation from high school as valedictorian in 1956, she came to Trevecca Nazarene College. One factor that caused Phyllis to come to Trevecca was a trio that traveled over the educational zone. Also she had two cousins who attended Trevecca at that time.

Since Phyllis has been at Trevecca, she has been a very busy student. She has been very busy in the Music Club, Kentucky Club, Future Teachers of America, Honor Society, Trevecca Athletic Association, A Cappella choir, and the Treble Tones Choir.

Not only has Phyllis been active socially but scholastically. She was honored by having the highest grades for all the school for two years, was junior marshal, president of the Honor Society for two years, vice-president of her Senior Class, vice-president of Future Teachers of America, and feature editor of the Darda.

Outside her schoolwork she likes music, cooking, sewing, and sports. Phyllis plans to continue her education at Peabody for her master's degree. She is now doing student teaching in the eighth grade at Central High School. Her future plans include teaching.

Hard work and many hours of study have been given to her major, mathematics, and minor, education-psychology.

Martha Gray

Martha Gray, born October 26, 1938, in Greenville, Florida, is the daughter of Mrs. Roscoe Hamilton. She has five brothers—James, Jimmy, Benny, Raymond, and Charles;

CHAPEL BELLS

October 28

Rev. Arthur O. Little brought a message in chapel on October 28, 1960. His text was taken from Isaiah, and the subject concerned the necessity of keeping the personal glory of God always in one's heart.

Rev. and Mrs. Little have six children: Janie, a Trevecca graduate, twenty-one; Dwayne, a junior at Trevecca, twenty; Carol, fourteen; Sandra, twelve; David Paul, nine; and Neva, seven.

Mr. Little has been in the active ministry for the past sixteen years. During World War I, he served as acting chaplain aboard ship for eighteen hundred men. He has traveled extensively and spoken in most of the states of the union. Prior to his thirteen years in the pastorate, he was in full-time evangelistic work.

November 2

A veteran of twenty fruitful years in the evangelistic field, Rev. Paul Stewart is a big man in vocabulary and height (six feet, six inches). Wyoming was his birthplace in 1912. He attended God's Bible College in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Jasper, Alabama, from 1954 to 1959. Mary Helen, James Paul, and Sharon Joy are his three children. Rev. Stewart spoke in chapel on November 2.

November 3

On November 3 a joyful testimony service followed a spontaneous altar service in which many burdened hearts were rested in Christ. The Holy Spirit was poured out upon the service in quiet abundance.

Trevecca Seniors Nominated For Fellowships

Phyllis Lobb, Judy Magnusson, Raymond Cowan, and Bob Mitchell have been nominated for Woodrow Wilson graduate fellowships. Well over nine thousand college seniors in the United States and Canada were nominated before the closing date of October 31. The candidates must be nominated by a faculty member.

Designed to reduce a nationwide shortage of qualified college teachers, the program annually awards one thousand fellowships for first year graduate study at any university of the recipient's choice in the United States or Canada. Candidates are elected only after rigorous screening and personal interviews by one of fifteen regional committees of educators. Each elected fellow receives a $1,500 stipend for living expenses plus full tuition and family allowances.

The program is open to college graduates mainly in the humanities and social sciences. Both men and women are eligible, and there is no limit on the age of the candidate or on the number of years he may have been out of college. Those who receive awards are not asked to commit themselves to college teaching, but merely to "consider it seriously" as a possible career.

The program, designed to encourage college seniors of outstanding ability to study for advanced degrees with faculty jobs as their goal, is administered by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation under a $24,500,000 five year grant from the Ford Foundation.

It was heard that some roommates needed a can opener. Then one night they all came in, having all bought openers. Cindy now wants to sell one for half price.

CLUB AND CLASS NEWS

On Saturday morning, October 28, nineteen students interested in science took a trip to Flat Rock, which is about twelve miles from Trevecca. Fossils of several thousand years old can be found there, and several students found very good examples of these fossils. Some of the fossils contained shells, corals, stems, and evidence of other plant and animal life. After looking for fossils, everyone enjoyed a good barbecue picnic dinner. Plans for another trip this quarter are being made.

Mrs. Mabel Greene entertained the Speech Club at her house with a hamburger fry on October 20. Plans for the year were discussed.

The Speech Club members also had the privilege of being judges at the Howard High School Ferenza on October 24. It covered many fields.

The Fine Arts auditorium on October 29, 1960, was the scene of a political film sponsored by the Senior Class. "Ambassador of Freedom" dealt with Vice-President Richard Nixon's good will tours to Europe, Russia, Asia, and South America.

November 7 through 11 marked the National American Education Week. The Trevecca Student Educational Club (formerly the F.T.A.), in preparation for this event presented two films on November 4, 1960, in the Fine Arts auditorium. The first film featured Horace Mann, the founder of education; and the next one entitled, "What Greater Gift," dealt with a young girl's decision between becoming a teacher or saleswoman.

In helping to commemorate this week, the Future Teachers Organization asked Dr. Mackey to speak on November 10 concerning teaching as it deals with a Christian and his life. Following this chapel service, the organization enjoyed a luncheon in the banquet room with Mr. Moss, the Davidson County superintendent of schools, as the guest speaker.

When two boys made a "0" on a test the other day, one said, "I know the teacher will accuse us of copying."

Dr. Mackey Honored at General Assembly

Chatter Box

Earl Frye

The football season is proving to be one of the best in Trevecca's history. The competition has been very keen thus far, and there appears to be some very good football games in sight.

Congratulations to the girls of the Alpha, Delta, and Beta societies for their organizing of cheerleaders to keep the spectators rooting for their favorite team.

Someone dropped an interesting question in the Trev-Echoes suggestion box in the McClurken building: "What is the meaning of the names which the fellows call each other on the football field?" Here are some of the nicknames of the different players. For the Betas, we have: "Tweety"—Gene Leviner, "Ole' Man"—Gerald Woods, "Yorkie"—Bud York, and "Ox"—Lowell Clyburn.

For the Deltas: "Johnny Dollar"—Byron Dollar, "Westie"—Wade Westbrook, "Pop"—Wendell Raney, and "Tom Dooley"—Tom Shaw.

For the Alphas: "Hugo"—Hugh Smith, "Al, the Scalper"—Al Wood, "Wendy"—Wendell Poole, and "Louie"—Billy Joe Richey.

Alphas and Betas Play To 20-20 Deadlock

The Betas and Alphas played to a thrilling 20-20 deadlock, as Bob Cook and Jim Stocks staged an aerial dual which kept the crowd on the edge of their seats.

During the first quarter, the Alphas scored first on a 20-yard pass from Cook to Vernon Henderson. The P.A.T. attempt was no good. The Betas racked up their first score on a 10-yard pass to Morton Estep from Stocks. The Stocks-to-Estep combination also scored the extra two points. There was no score during the second quarter.

After the second half got under way, the Alphas scored their second touchdown of the game as Cook pitched a 15-yard pass to Dave Brown. On the play preceding Brown's touchdown, Paul Lewis had intercepted a Stocks pass and raced 30 yards to the Beta 15-yard line. The P.A.T. attempt was incomplete. The Betas then pulled two flashy touchdowns as Stocks hit Bud York with 20 and 50-yard passes to push ahead in the game. Both P. A. T. attempts were incomplete.

During the fourth quarter Cook passed 15 yards to Henderson for the touchdown. The extra two points from Cook to Henderson tied the game 20-20.

Alphas Romp Over Deltas 18-0

As the Alphas and Deltas clashed in the second game of the season, the outcome of the game at first looked dubious. At one time the Alphas moved to the Delta 5-yard line, but the Delta defense stiffened, and the first half was scoreless.

Halfway through the third quarter the Alpha offense started clicking. Paul Lewis found his mark with a 10-yard pass to Bob Cook, who ran fifty yards for the touchdown. The extra points attempt was unsuccessful as Winston Thaxton charged in to stop the play. Another Lewis-to-Cook pass scored for the Alphas after Dave Brown intercepted a Delta pass. The P. A. T. attempt was incomplete, leaving the score 12-0.

The Deltas, with Charles Kirby as quarterback, could not seem to get rolling, and a Cook-to-Brown pass in the fourth quarter finished up the scoring for the game with the Alphas winning 18-0.

Alphas Trim Deltas 22-0

With a strong rushing and passing offense, the Alphas blanked the Deltas by the score of 22-0. The first quarter was scoreless as each team battled around the mid-field stripe, but midway through the second quarter Paul Lewis tossed a 15-yard pass to Bob Cook in the end zone for the Alphas. The Lewis-to-Cook combination was good for the P. A. T.

The Alphas pushed the Deltas to the Delta goal line during the third quarter and racked up their second touchdown as Dave Brown recovered a Delta fumble in the end zone. Cook passed to Vernon Henderson for the extra two points.

One minute after the fourth quarter got under way, the Alphas scored once again as Bob Cook hit Wendell Poole with a 5-yard pass and Poole raced 15 more yards for the touchdown. The extra point attempt was no good. This ended the scoring in the game and gave the Alphas a 22-0 victory.

The Deltas played a fine game considering that four of their regulars were unable to play.

BETAS TROUNCE DELTAS 24-6

The Betas opened the first quarter of the third game of the season by driving to the Delta goal line after the latter had lost the ball on downs. Then Jim Stocks completed a 4-yard pass to Tom Davis for the first score of the game. The P. A. T. was complete on a pass to Gene Leviner from Stocks.

During the second quarter, Jim Stocks hit Roger Costa with a 1-yard jump pass to give the Betas another touchdown after they had marched from the Delta 20-yard line on ten plays. Stocks passed to Gerald Woods for the P. A. T., making the score 16-0.

The third quarter was without score as both teams battled up and down the field. But, just before the quarter ended, the Betas had possession of the ball on the Delta 1-yard line.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Stocks scooted around left end to score from the 1-yard line. Morton Estep snared a pass from Stocks for the P. A. T. With less than three minutes left in the game, Charles Kirby completed a beautiful 10-yard pass to Everett Higginbotham for a Delta touchdown. The game ended 24-6 as the P. A. T. attempt was incomplete.

Betas Edge Past Deltas 12-6

The Betas remained unbeaten as they edged past the Deltas 12-6. In this sixth game both teams played the best defensive battle seen thus far this season.

The Deltas took the opening kickoff of the game, and, three plays later, Gene Cook intercepted a Kirby pass and raced to the Delta 5-yard line. The Betas then scored on the Stocks-to-Cook pass that covered five yards. The P. A. T. attempt was no good. Just before the first quarter ended, Kirby completed a 6-yard pass to Wendell Raney to knot the score at 6-6. The P. A. T. was blocked by Morton Estep.

It looked as though the game would be a wild-scoring affair, but both defenses toughened up until the fourth quarter when Jim Stocks cut in the end zone, giving the Betas a 12-6 edge. The P. A. T. attempt was incomplete. That was the final score as both teams battled to a standstill the rest of the game.

Alphas Defeat Deltas 20-6

Exactly one minute after the opening kick-off, Bob Cook passed 12 yards to Wendell Poole for the first touchdown of the game. The P. A. T. attempt was incomplete. Just after the second quarter had gotten under way the Alphas scored another touchdown when Vernon Henderson snared a 30-yard pass from Bob Cook, making the score 12-0 as the P. A. T. attempt was knocked down.

During the third quarter, the Alphas scored once more as Buddy Vaughn intercepted a Kirby pass and raced 30 yards for a touchdown. Then Cook passed to Billy Joe Richey for the P. A. T.

With five seconds remaining in the game, the Deltas scored on a 1-yard jump pass from Charles Kirby to Tom Shaw. The P. A. T. attempt was incomplete, giving the Alphas a 20-6 victory over the Deltas.

and three sisters—Mary, Lois, and Ruth.

Martha entered Trevecca as a freshman in September, 1955. During her sophomore year she was elected secretary of the Ministerial Association, also secretary and treasurer of the Missionary Prayer Band, to which office she was re-elected in her junior year. She has been on the Residence Hall Council for three years and has been an active participant in the Literary Club. Throughout her college days she has been an active Christian worker. She was elected reporter to Trev-Echoes for the Christian Workers Association for two years—her junior and senior years. She serves as N.Y.P.S. president, Sunday school teacher, and church secretary at the Smyrna Church of the Nazarene. She has assisted Professor K. W. Phillips as an efficient secretary. Martha plans to serve God and the Church of the Nazarene as a missionary. Her sincerity, integrity, and leadership ability will be valuable assets to her as she endeavors to fulfill this calling.

As an education major, Martha plans to teach the required time before going to the mission field.

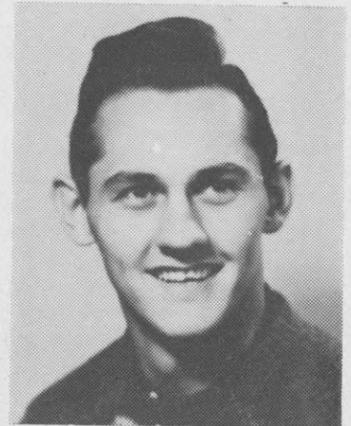

Robert S. Mitchell

Robert S. Mitchell, better known as "Bobby" here on campus, has been a busy student during his four years at Trevecca. He comes from Sumter, South Carolina. He is the son of Mrs. Felicia Mitchell and the late T. W. Mitchell.

Robert was pastor for the Church of the Nazarene in South Carolina for six years before coming to Trevecca. He and his wife, Emaline, moved here from a pastorate in South Carolina in order for him to continue his education. He has five children, including a set of twins. He works for the Salvation Army Recreation Center.

Bob has been an assistant in the History Department to Dr. Homer J. Adams for the past three years. Besides being busy with this, he has been able to hold the offices of president of the Clio Society, South Carolina Club, and the Senior Class. He has been the reporter of the Clio Society and Ministerial Association.

Bob Cook Is Sports Personality

As the Sports Personality spotlight swept its beam across Trevecca's athletes, it fell on a young man named Bob Cook. Bob, who is twenty-one and a junior, is a graduate of Huntington East High School in Huntington, West Virginia. He calls Huntington his home.

Bob is an old hand on the athletic field. Before his college days he played four years of high school basketball and seven years of organized football; three years were junior high and three, senior high. Aside from playing and lettering in three years of high school basketball, he has played Little League, Babe Ruth League, and American Legion League baseball. In each of these leagues, where Bob was pitcher, the team went to the state tournament. The year he pitched in the Little League they won the state tournament. Bob holds the Babe Ruth League pitching record by striking out nineteen of twenty-one men that he faced. All told, he has pitched in fifteen All-Star baseball tournaments.

Upon graduation from high school Bob was offered a scholarship in football at Marshall College in Huntington. Bob has a twin brother at Marshall on a football scholarship at the present. Bob turned down this proposition to come to T.N.C.

He has proved his worth to the Alphas since he came to Trevecca. In his freshman year he played left halfback on the football team, guard on the basketball team, and catcher on the softball team. In all three sports he was elected to the All-Star team.

In his sophomore year Bob was elected captain of the Alpha football team. He also quarterbacked the team that year. Once again when basketball season started he was playing guard. He was elected to the All-Star team in both these sports last year.

Already this year he has been elected captain of the Alpha football team.

Bob is not only a good athlete, but he is also a good Christian. He is called into full-time ministry. With his personality and determination he is certain to be a blessing and a good worker in God's harvest fields.

A history major, Robert's plans include graduate study and teaching.
