CLASS, CLUB OFFICERS ELECTED

Mrs. Greene Presents Recital

MRS. MABEL COONER GREENE

Mrs. Mabel Cooner Greene presented "The White Cliffs of Dover," a dramatic reading written by Alice D. Miller in the Fine Arts auditorium to a standing-room-only audience at 7:45 p.m., Friday, October 14. She was assisted by soprano soloist, Mrs. Rose Merchant Pickard, and the piano accompanist, Miss Barbara McClain. Mrs. Greene received a bouquet of red roses from her sister, Miss Elzora Cooner, and her cousin, Mrs. Emma Lee Jared, amid the applause of an appreciative audience.

Twelve years of experience as professor of speech and sponsor of Trevecca's Speech Club were the developing background for Mrs. Greene's speech recital, which entailed many weeks of memorization and dramatic practice to produce the two-part performance.

Mrs. Pickard sang the American patriotic melodies, "This is My Country," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic;" the European love songs, "Sylvelin," and "Amerilli;" the English folk tune, "The White Cliffs of Dover."

The recital was presented jointly by the Fine Arts Department and the Trevecca Speech Club.

Ushers and usherettes were: Martha Cox, Larry Ries, Edra Hammond, and John William Farish.

As of September 30, the college department with 460 enrolled shows a ten per cent increase over last year. Total enrollment is 535.

On November 4, the Future Teachers Association will present films after a week of activities for National Education Week.

Twenty-One States, Cuba Represented In Freshman Class

A total of one hundred sixty-six new freshmen enrolled last month for the fall quarter. The following is a list by states.

ALABAMA: Martin Benson, Michael Golden, Sharon Stewart, Ann Edmonds, Charles Baka, Janice Price-Williams, Billy Joe Richey, Edith Hamilton, Erin Clayton, Alma Kirkland, James Lasley, and Carol Young.

GEORGIA: Marjorie Chambers, James Foster, Jan Gosa, Barbara Minchey, Ann James, Bill Beasley, Wanda Coburn, Jerry McCant, Doyle Brittain, Carolyn Young, Jeannetta Bartley, Carol Bryant, Helen Bohler, Winifred Davidson, Donna Hutchinson, Philip Neeley, Don Reeves, and Janie England.

Tops On Tests Are Disclosed

Upon entering Trevecca Nazarene College all freshmen are given entrance examinations before complete acceptance can be made. These tests include Mathematics, English Comprehension, Silent Reading Test, and Bible Test. They were given on September 15 and 16 this year.

Charlotte Porter and Michael Golden were tied at the top of the list in the College Qualification Test, which included mathematics, social studies, science, verbal expression. After them were Boyd Carter, Marty Cox, and Thomas Houseman. On the Bible test, Samuel Tinsley and James Lasley were the high ranking students. Charlotte Porter and Michael Golden were first and second, and Janie England, third, on the English Comprehension Test.

Friday Evening Programs Presented

Some of the underclassmen entertained a Friday evening audience with a talent contest on October 7. The contestants were all freshmen except Jim Stocks, a sophomore, who really won the prize with his solo, "Blue Hawaii," on the electric guitar. However, since the contest was just for freshmen, the judges with the help of the audience placed David Gray's organ solo, "I Dream of Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair," in first place. Beverly McFillen recited a reading called "Backbone." A vocal solo, "Two Marionettes," was presented by Patsy Wood. Adding to the musical variety were an accordion number, "Black Hawk Waltz," by Charlotte Porter, and a trombone medley composed of "This Nearly Was Mine," "Bali Hai," and "Some Enchanted Evening," by Jerry Appleby. The three sisters, Donna, Norma, and Carol Cornelius, sang "That's Why I Want to Go."

On October 21 the Science Club presented a seventy-five minute film, "A Great Adventure," in the Fine Arts auditorium. This film of the cycle of nature and man's place in that never-ending spiral is enveloped in the story of a great adventure. It is the tale of two boys and their family living on a Swedish farm amid northern wild life, their relations with their animal neighbors and the animals' fight for survival as they prey on each other.

Do not plan anything for Friday evening, October 28. Expect to come to the most unusual, most exciting Halloween party ever to be at Trevecca. The juniors are planning this, and the place and all that is planned are surprises.

CHAPEL BELLS

The fall revival continues in the chapel services with students finding spiritual help.

On Monday, October 10, Professor Leon Chambers brought a stirring chapel message on keeping alive the revival which has started at Trevecca.

Rev. John S. Logan, from London, England, presented four chapel messages from October 11-14.

Rev. Logan, a native of Scotland, was educated at the University of London. He has held major conventions and camp meetings on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean. He succeeded Dr. Oswald Chambers as pastor of Speakes Hall which later became the First Church of the Nazarene.

During World War II, Rev. Logan conducted daily prayer services in Buckingham Palace and led a number of the members of the royal household to Christ.

Rev. Logan has been president of Vernard College, University Park, Iowa, for the past two years. This school is a holiness Bible college. He was editor of a British holiness publication. He is married to a former Salvation Army officer, and has one recently married daughter.

Dr. Lawrence B. Hicks was the special speaker for chapel hour October 17-21. A former Trevecca student, Dr. Hicks was graduated from the University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee. Trevecca Nazarene College bestowed the honorary degree of D.D. on him. Dr. Hicks went into full-time evangelism for several years before becoming pastor in Ashland, Kentucky, Orlando, Florida, and Chattanooga, Tennessee. He has preached at camp meetings, being recalled to Lakeland Campground in Florida several times. At present he is pastor of Chattanooga First Church of the Nazarene and chairman of the Department of Church Schools of the General Board.

Student Council Holds Elections

Among the opening activities of the new school year was the election of officers for the classes and various campus clubs, under the supervision of the Student Council.

Heading the Senior Class is Bob Mitchell, with Phyllis Lobb, vice-president; Sylvia Young, secretary; Ray Cowan, treasurer; Ruth Shannon, reporter; Melvin Welch, Student Council representative; Miss Barbara McClain, sponsor.

Student Council officers were elected last year and have been working to keep the activities of the school going. The president, Orval LeJeune, secretary, Dale Melton, and sponsor, Dr. H. J. Adams, should be congratulated for their fine work. Also working on the council are: Bess Kirby, Darda editor; Mary Jane Still, Treve Echoes editor; James Staley, C.W.A. president; Wendell Poole, T.A.A. president; and the class representatives.

A Missionary Sends Thanks For Darda

San Isidro, Matagalpa
Nicaragua, Central America
September, 1960

Dear Mrs. Phillips:

Recently I received a Darda. I don't know who was responsible for sending it. However, since you are one of the advisors, I will write you to express my sincere appreciation. Also please convey my thanks to any others who may have had a part in this.

It was enjoyable to look through, and it brought back many happy memories. Of course, the first person I looked for was my niece, Patsy Mercer. There were a few others whom I knew, children of former pastors.

The new school year has begun. I trust that it will be a good one for both faculty and students.

The work here is progressing little by little. We covet your prayers, for the enemy is ever present to try to hinder the work of the Spirit. In the near future we hope to have the church organized, and before another year passes to have a church building.

May God bless you faithful Nazarenes who do your part that the Gospel may be taken to those in darkness. Thanks for your kindness to us missionaries.

Yours in Him,
Lesper Heflin

Effects Of Revival Are Still Felt

One of the highlights at Trevecca is the fall revival. Each year, at a designated time, a special speaker is called to conduct a school revival in conjunction with College Hill Church. This year the special speaker for services, October 2-9, was Dr. Mack Anderson, superintendent of the Georgia District. His messages and spirit of helpfulness were deeply appreciated. Many found definite spiritual victory.

The revival is something that all anticipate and prepare their hearts for. This year a week of scheduled prayer was conducted.

Library Has New Schedule

By Marilyn Foskey

The library staff of Trevecca Nazarene College, realizing a great responsibility to the student body, has made plans for a good year through the 1960-61 school term.

Under the leadership of Mrs. A. B. Mackey, librarian, and Mr. William Jernigan, assistant librarian, are the student staff members: Doris Lasley, Juanita Geise, Charlene Ragsdale, Ray Kohser, and Marilyn Foskey.

The student body is encouraged to take advantage of the opportunities for learning in the library.

In complying with the standards of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, the library, which has until October 10 been open fifty hours each week, will increase these hours to approximately sixty-eight. During these hours members of the staff will be on duty to assist as usual.

The revised library schedule is:

7:30 a.m.-11:00 a.m. Daily except Saturday.

12:00 noon- 9:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday.

12:00 noon- 7:15 p.m. Wednesday

12:00 noon- 7:30 p.m. Friday.

8:00 a.m.-12:00 a.m. Saturday

1:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m. Saturday

As with freedom go certain laws, so it is also necessary for the library to have certain restrictions. Reserve books for the classes are located behind the check-out desk and are classified as one-hour, two-hour, two-day, and one-week reserves. All reserve books are due at 8:00 a.m. of the day they are to be returned.

The one and two-hour books are not to be taken from the reading room. They carry an overdue fine of ten cents for each hour or fraction. Overdue two-day reserves carry a fine of ten cents before 11:00 a.m., and fifteen cents afterward. Overdue one-week reserves are five cents per day, and regular two-week books have an overdue fine of three cents a day. These fines are placed on library materials to encourage prompt return of the borrowed materials. The money received goes into a fund for buying books and other materials for the library.

What God can do through prayer when one has fervently prepared his heart to be in tune with the Master was seen. It is yet to be learned of the complete results of the services. The final harvest will be great. Surely, Christian young people will endeavor to be better Christians as a result of this revival. "Our safety margin for a Christian life is to stay completely away from the margin."

Sharon Carter is reputed to be a good biscuit-maker. We suggest that Mr. Klinstiver hire her as chief cook as well as bottle washer.

C.W.A. Reports

By MARTHA GRAY

During the week-end of October 2, one hundred students went into the city of Nashville to hold regular services in the thirteen departments of the Christian Workers Association. All the services seemed to be especially blessed of the Lord. Fifty persons were converted in these services. Among these were eight children in the junior class at the colored Sunday school. There were other outstanding victories, such as for the one who was being held for murder, yet wondrously forgiven of her sins as she accepted Christ as her Savior. In addition to these, nine others received definite spiritual help. How true it is that God's promises are unfulfilling. We are thankful for His blessings upon these services.

Officers of the Christian Workers Association elected last year are: James Staley, president; LeRoy Davis, vice-president; Esther Blume, secretary; Yvonne Johnson, follow-up secretary; Tom Reid, treasurer; Albert Truesdale, visitation chairman; Martha Gray, reporter; Professor K. W. Phillips, faculty sponsor.

Captains and co-captains who will serve for the fall term were elected by the Association on October 3. These are students who are in charge of the services each week. They are dedicated workers with a vision of the task before them. Each of them would extend to you a welcome to participate in these services each week-end. Following is a list of services, captains, co-captains, and a schedule of the time when the students leave for each service.

Student Benefits From Blue Cross

Harold Furniss is an example on campus of what the Students' Blue Cross, Blue Shield insurance can do. Harold had an appendectomy only one week after taking out this insurance.

Blue Shield provides the benefits listed by the Tennessee State Medical Association in its officially approved surgical schedule. These benefits range from $3 to $300 for hundreds of operations and for the treatment of fractures and dislocations.

One is entitled to seventy full days of hospital care per school year, which begins the first day of classes in September and ends the day before classes begin the following September. As an in-patient of its member hospitals as a non-accident case, one will receive a room and board allowance up to $10.00 a day.

In addition, benefits will be provided for all other necessary services and supplies except blood, blood plasma, blood derivatives and substitutes, and special duty nursing.

"Youth For Kennedy" Challenges GOP Club

The recently formed Youth For Kennedy-Johnson Club has challenged the Youth for Nixon-Lodge Club to debate on the issues of the presidential campaign. The Clio Society is sponsoring these events. The committee is made up of Dwayne Little, chairman, Bob Mitchell, Ray Cowan, and Orval LeJeune. Two debates have taken place, and three are to follow. They are being held during the last half of the noon hour, since this probably allows the majority of students to attend. The rules of the debate have been set up by the sponsoring organization. The final debate will be Saturday before the election, which is November 8. A mock election was held here on Monday, October 24.

Dwayne L. Little, chairman of the Trevecca chapter of the Youth For Kennedy-Johnson Club, declared, "We are aware of our present position. Certainly there is much ground to be gained for our side. It is our contention that the youth of Trevecca want rapid progress in the next administration, and that they want our national prestige to rise again to its previous high level so that our country may lead the world for democracy. They do not want to risk conservatism in such a time of national crisis but want to be absolutely positive of our safety. More light needs to be shed on the present political situation and the issues of this campaign. We expect the debates to enlighten many and to improve our position."

The chairman stated that all issues were open for discussion, including religion. "How can any issue of such vital importance to all Christians be left out of such a debate on a campus such as ours? We are prepared to meet the issue squarely, in exactly the same manner as has our candidate, Mr. Kennedy," he said.

Thus far the Youth For Kennedy-Johnson Club has passed out bumper stickers, campaign buttons, and various types of literature. An intensified drive for members will be carried on until election day, November 8. Campaign signs will be posted and new information concerning the campaign will be distributed.

Miss McClain Goes West On Summer Trip

On August 2, 1960, Miss Barbara McClain, music professor at Trevecca, accompanied by her aunt, Miss Constance Spruce, and her mother, Mrs. C. S. McClain, began an extensive and fascinating trip to the West.

Previous to this trip, Miss McClain taught one session of summer school and attended the General Assembly in Kansas City, Missouri. She stated that the General Assembly was "one of the best." She mentioned her particular pride in the Trevecca choir. Others at the assembly also noticed its outstanding quality.

After the assembly, Miss McClain returned to her home in Kankakee, Illinois; from there she and her traveling companions made their way to the desert plains.

Upon arriving in the West, the three of them visited Los Angeles and San Francisco, California; Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and Las Vegas, New Mexico; and Denver and Colorado Springs, Colorado. They visited five national parks; Grand Canyon, Brass Canyon, Zion National Park, Sequoia National Park, and the Garden of the Gods. They also visited Hoover Dam, the Painted Desert, and the Petrified Forest. In Salt Lake City they toured the Mormon Temple and viewed in awe the Great Salt Lake. While in California they spent two nights in a women's dormitory at Pasadena College.

Throughout the entire summer, Miss McClain said that they drove approximately ten thousand miles. When asked her feeling concerning the trip, she replied that it was "a wonderful trip, one which we enjoyed very much."

D.C.'s Are Chosen

There is a small group of selected students at Trevecca that many do not know about. These are the dormitory counselors who are chosen by the head residents. The counselors are selected to represent their dormitories in various committee and planning meetings. Another aspect of their job would be to give guidance to the students at any needed time, and to give any needed assistance to the head resident.

Chosen this year to represent McKay Hall are Sylvia Young and Karen Cox; Gibbs Hall, Martha Gray; Smith Hall, Carol Allen. Sue Ann Beeler is the high school representative for Hardy Hall. The other appointed counselors for Hardy Hall are Anita Hamilton, Betty McKay, Theresa Gunter and Mary Lou Tiemann.

Tidwell has four counselors: LeRoy Davis, Douglas Askew, Dale Melton and James Van Hook.

How Halloween Began

We are living in a fast-moving world. It is rapidly changing right before our eyes. As style, ideas and customs change, so do our holidays. It may be surprising to know the origin of some of our holidays.

For example, let us look at the holiday, Halloween. Everyone is very familiar with this old holiday but perhaps not everyone is familiar with its origin. Halloween, like many of our other holidays, was founded on religious principles. The earliest celebration of this holiday was known as Vigil of Halloween or All Saints' Day. Pope Gregory III designated this day as "feast day." Gregory IV let this be a feast to honor all the saints. As time elapsed it was thought of as the end of summer and preparation for winter.

The pranks of Halloween were common in rural areas of Ireland and Great Britain. It was the nineteenth century before the pranks of Halloween were known in the United States.

Tops On Tests

Charlotte Porter, a major in biology, is from Oak Ridge, Tennessee. She received a scholarship from the Oak Ridge Education Association to aid in her college education. It has been her ambition to attend Trevecca since she was nine years of age. Charlotte plans to teach biology in college.

Michael Golden, a resident of Shawmut, Alabama, is majoring in religion. He plans to go into the ministry upon graduation. He received a national merit scholarship when he graduated from high school.

James Lasley, a major in religion, certainly knows his Bible. He and his wife, Doris, live in the Trevecca Trailer Court. He plans to enter the ministry upon graduation.

Samuel Tinsley, also a major in religion, comes from Oakdale Christian High School in Kentucky. He received a scholarship from the Youth Conference Organization there. He is now assistant pastor of the Free Methodist Church here in Nashville.

"Youth For Nixon" Club Organized

During the summer months under the leadership of Wendell Poole, a Youth For Nixon-Lodge Club emerged at Trevecca. The principal concern of this club is to do all that is possible to aid in the election of Richard Nixon as the next president of the United States. At the present time the club has two hundred seventy-five members.

The club has a full agenda between now and election day. There are several rallies scheduled. At one of these rallies there will be a speech by one of the officers of the local Nixon-Lodge Headquarters in Nashville. Also, a film has been shown concerning Mr. Nixon's tour of South America. The organization was assigned a certain section of Nashville in which to give out stickers in the Giant Sticker Crusade. On October 8, twelve hundred stickers were given out. Individual Nixon-Lodge buttons and stickers can be obtained from Wendell or one of his aides.

There is much concern about the presidential election. There is not only concern in our own country, but the election is being watched closely by the entire world. Our future may be determined by the outcome of this election. It could very well determine the future of other countries also. If you have not been very interested in this election, get the facts and back your candidate. You owe it to yourself as a young citizen to take an active part in this election.

Chatter Box

by

Earl Frye

The football season has finally gotten under way. Enthusiasm is running high. Spirits were up as the fans turned out to back their teams for the opening game. This was an inspiring sight to the sports enthusiast. When the fellows play their hardest they deserve good support. If they do not get this support it takes something out of the game. So, students, support your team.

If you have not been coming to the games, come on out; pick a team and let's GO-GO-GO in athletics this year.

There have been many questions regarding the qualifications of earning a letter at Trevecca. According to the Trevecca Athletic Association program and its constitution, in order to earn a letter one must: participate in two sports, playing at least three-fourths of the games; maintain a C average; and pay T.A.A. dues all three quarters.

There is a Trev-Echoes suggestion box in the lobby of the McClurkan building. If any sports fans have questions pertaining to the athletic program at Trevecca, please drop a note in this box, and they will be answered in the next Chatter Box.

Here are the 1960 football predictions: Alphas (experience and speed), Betas (weight and fair speed), Deltas (speed, but light).

Football schedule for 1960, subject to change by the T. A. A. Council:

October 13	Beta vs. Alpha	15	Beta vs. Delta
18	Alpha vs. Delta	17	Alpha vs. Delta
20	Delta vs. Beta	22	Beta vs. Alpha
25	Alpha vs. Beta	26	Delta vs. Beta

Betas Edge Alphas 22-20

With Jimmy Stocks calling the signals at quarterback, the Betas won their first game over the Alphas in three years.

The Alphas scored a touchdown only three minutes after the starting whistle of this first game of the season as Bob Cook passed eight yards to Vernon Henderson. Then Cook passed to Henderson for the P.A.T. to make the score 8 to 0.

At the beginning of the second quarter with the Alphas in charge of the ball, Bob Cook sneaked over from the 4-yard line to tally another score for the Alphas. The P.A.T. was incomplete. Near the end of the second quarter, as the Betas marched up field, Tom Davis broke loose, and Jim Stocks hit him with a 30-yard pass for the first Beta score. Stocks passed to Wyatt Dodd for the P.A.T. to make the score 14-8.

During the third quarter the Betas picked up where they left off at the second half, as Stocks passed five yards to Roger Costa for the touchdown, thus tying the game at 14-14. The extra point attempt failed.

Midway through the fourth quarter, the Betas hit pay dirt again as Stocks passed five yards to Tom Davis for another T.D. Stocks completed a two-yard pass to Costa for the P.A.T. With the crack of the gun ending the game, the Alphas scored. Al Wood caught Cook's pass, leaving the Alphas only two points from a tie. With tension and excitement mounting, the Beta defense held strong as Gerald Woods and Morton Estep stopped Bob Cook in the extra point attempt, giving the Betas a 22-20 victory over the Alphas.

"Autumn Leaves" Is Freshman-Sophomore Banquet Theme

"Autumn Leaves" was the theme of the Freshman-Sophomore Banquet, the climax of the Freshman Recognition Week of 1960, on Saturday, October 1. As the freshmen and sophomores gathered in the atmosphere of autumn, Miss Barbara McClain, pianist, played appropriate seasonal songs.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Homer J. Admas. James Van Hook, sophomore president, presented a welcome, with David Moore, freshman president, giving a response. A vocal music program was presented with Ed Allred singing "Autumn Leaves," and a ladies' trio, composed of Barbara Medina, Patsy Wood, and Charlotte Porter, singing "Beautiful Dreamer." The special speaker for the evening was Dr. Homer J. Adams. After the meal was completed, the benediction was given by Professor Ramon Uhrh, Sophomore Class sponsor.
