NAZARENE COLLEGE 1963-64

Students Worship Through Prayer, Thanksgiving and Service

“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high shall abide under the shadow of the almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God: in him will I trust . . . For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways . . . He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honour him.”—Psalm 91. It is the hope of Trevecca College that every student will dwell “in the secret place of the most high.”

A noonday pause for prayer

Testimony and praise—a source of inspiration

"He will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry . . . he will answer thee."—Isaiah 30:19.

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth."—Psalms 121: 1-2.

Setting The Curve

Another one of Dr. Wise's exams!!!

Well, yes, I like octopuses but . . .

Studying—or a letter from home??

John, you can't count that time for listening and reading.

Lecture notes, listening hours, outside reading, term papers, and examinations are the devices used to sharpen the minds of the scholars who gather knowledge from the shelves of the library, the heads of the professors, and the world around them. One may find them on the lawn, in the library, in the classroom, or in the dormitory room, always busy, always learning.

Studying comes first to some.

Opportunities to Broaden Horizons

Many opportunities to learn more about special fields of interest come to Trevecca students each year. Among the outstanding events this year was the Music Conference which gave instruction in every area of religious music. The Missionary Conference offered private counseling for prospective missionaries as well as exhibits, lectures, and messages from the different fields.

The Ministerial Association visited Kansas City to tour our General Headquarters and see the Seminary. The tour was planned to give further insight into the functions of our General Church and better acquaint ministerial students with our seminary.

The Cafeteria—the scene of all our banquets

"Misty" was the theme for this year's Valentine Banquet. Excellent planning by the Sophomores created a truly "misty" atmosphere. The banquet glowed with a romantic mood created by organ and trumpet music, valentines, candle light, and warm smiles. In true tradition several engagements were announced.

Other banquets during the year were Freshman-Sophomore, Junior-Senior, and Thanksgiving. The Freshman Class sponsored the annual Christmas Party. With "Santa's Workshop" as the theme, the freshmen joined together to make this year's Christmas party one of the best ever.

Sue, are those roses for open house?

Residence Hall

Larry, remember that you're just helping with the moving.

A snowy February 28 was moving day. Ninety-seven girls are now established in their new residence. The new rooms with semi-private baths have all the comforts of home: a desk for two, bookshelves, comfortable beds, adequate lighting and closet space. The rooms are done in four basic color schemes in light pastel shades. A view of the campus or the city may be seen from each window. Mrs. Mabel Orndoff, formerly head resident of McKay Hall, has moved too. Open House with a St. Patrick's Day theme was March 6. Other features of the new building seen at this time were a beautifully furnished lobby, a lounge on each floor for the purposes of study and prayer, and in the basement enclosed in glass windows, a large kitchen and student center for recreational purposes.

Fashions and hair styles are the subjects of discussion in the sitting rooms on each floor. The furniture is white and mulberry.

Community Living Can Be Fun

"A home away from home," is what our residence halls are to the students. It is here that we live and grow to be men and women. We learn to share, to cooperate, to give, to be disciplined. We are given understanding, fellowship, and an opportunity to become sons and daughters Trevecca can be proud of.

Fun and fellowship in McKay.

Faculty & Administration

Dean Wise, Dean Adams, and Dr. Childers confer with President Greathouse on matters of vital importance to the success of our college. All of the administrators and faculty members are dedicated to Trevecca and to providing a Christian education for her students. They give willingly of their time and energy for counseling and student activities in addition to their administrative and teaching duties.

President Emeritus Dr. A. B. Mackey

Upon the resignation of Dr. A. B. Mackey as President of the College, the Board of Trustees honored him with the title of President Emeritus. For twenty-seven years he served as the head administrator and is now serving as a part-time teacher at Trevecca—the College for which he has given his life!

In Appreciation

REV. AND MRS. CLIFFORD E. KEYS

Trevecca College owes much to "Pop" Keys, who organized the office of field representative fourteen years ago. It is through his efforts that Trevecca is recognized across our zone

Pop is a truly glowing personality. When you know him, you love him. He is one who brought enjoyment, fellowship, and deep meaning to the travels of the choirs, and one who could stir the heart with a brief devotional, highlighted by his best-remembered characteristic: his sincere prayers. By his example, special meaning was brought to all phases of the Christian life.

Sincere interest characterizes his life. We remember him as a counselor, friend, Christian example—and our "Pop." We appreciate his philosophy of life, his consistent Christian living, and his love for T. N. C.

Organization was his motto, making him fulfill his job with the greatest possible efficiency. As a result, he gave himself to Trevecca, and his influence is felt by many people both young and old throughout the Southeastern zone.

His special little woman, whom we know as "Mom," joined with him to make their stay at Trevecca one to be always remembered. Animation characterizes her glowing personality and affects all with whom she comes in contact.

Our hearts feel a certain emptiness; yet, we rejoice at their successes. They are always to be remembered, cherished, and loved.

"Pop" and "Mom."

Leaving for choir tour.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name." The Psalmist had discovered the symphony of life. Because God was the center of his existence, every power of his being joined in blessing the Lord.

"All that is within me." What an intriguing phrase! Every aspect of this man's personality had been brought into a unity of purpose and expression. His imagination blessed the Lord. His reason, his affections, his will, his every power joined in the symphony of praise to Jehovah.

Christian education seeks to produce this symphony of life. Its goal is wholeness, harmony, health: a well rounded person integrated in God. True holiness is the motive power of this process. By the infilling of the Spirit of God one's "whole spirit and soul and body" are harmonized and directed to one end: to love God with all the heart and neighbor as self. When this is reality, life becomes a symphony of praise.

In our shrinking world successful communication is the goal of every nation. Music is the universal language, but a knowledge of its history, theory, and application are necessary to enter the field in a professional status.

Literature, past and present, gives the student an understanding of human experience through the imagination and observation of the great writers. Proficiency in language, both native and foreign, gives one the ability to share his knowledge and experience with people around him.

This division strives to give the student a thorough knowledge of the Scripture for a heartfelt experience with Christ and the understanding and methods necessary to tell others of this experience. Consecrated Bible scholars explain the teaching of the Bible as fundamental doctrine and in the light of conflicting philosophies. Intensive training in methods is provided for students planning for the ministry and full time Christian service.

The student of science and mathematics observes the world about him, puts it under the microscope, gazes at it through a telescope, mixes it together in a tube; he writes it all down on paper, the path of the stars, the secrets of the atom. Recitals

Lucy Williams, pianist, of St. Louis, Missouri, presented her junior recital November 15. She was assisted by Professor James Van Hook, trumpeter, and the Brass Ensemble which made its debut. Miss Williams chose three classical pieces for the first section and a suite of contemporary pieces for the second. The climax of the performance was a solo arrangement for the piano of George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue.

LUCY WILLIAMS

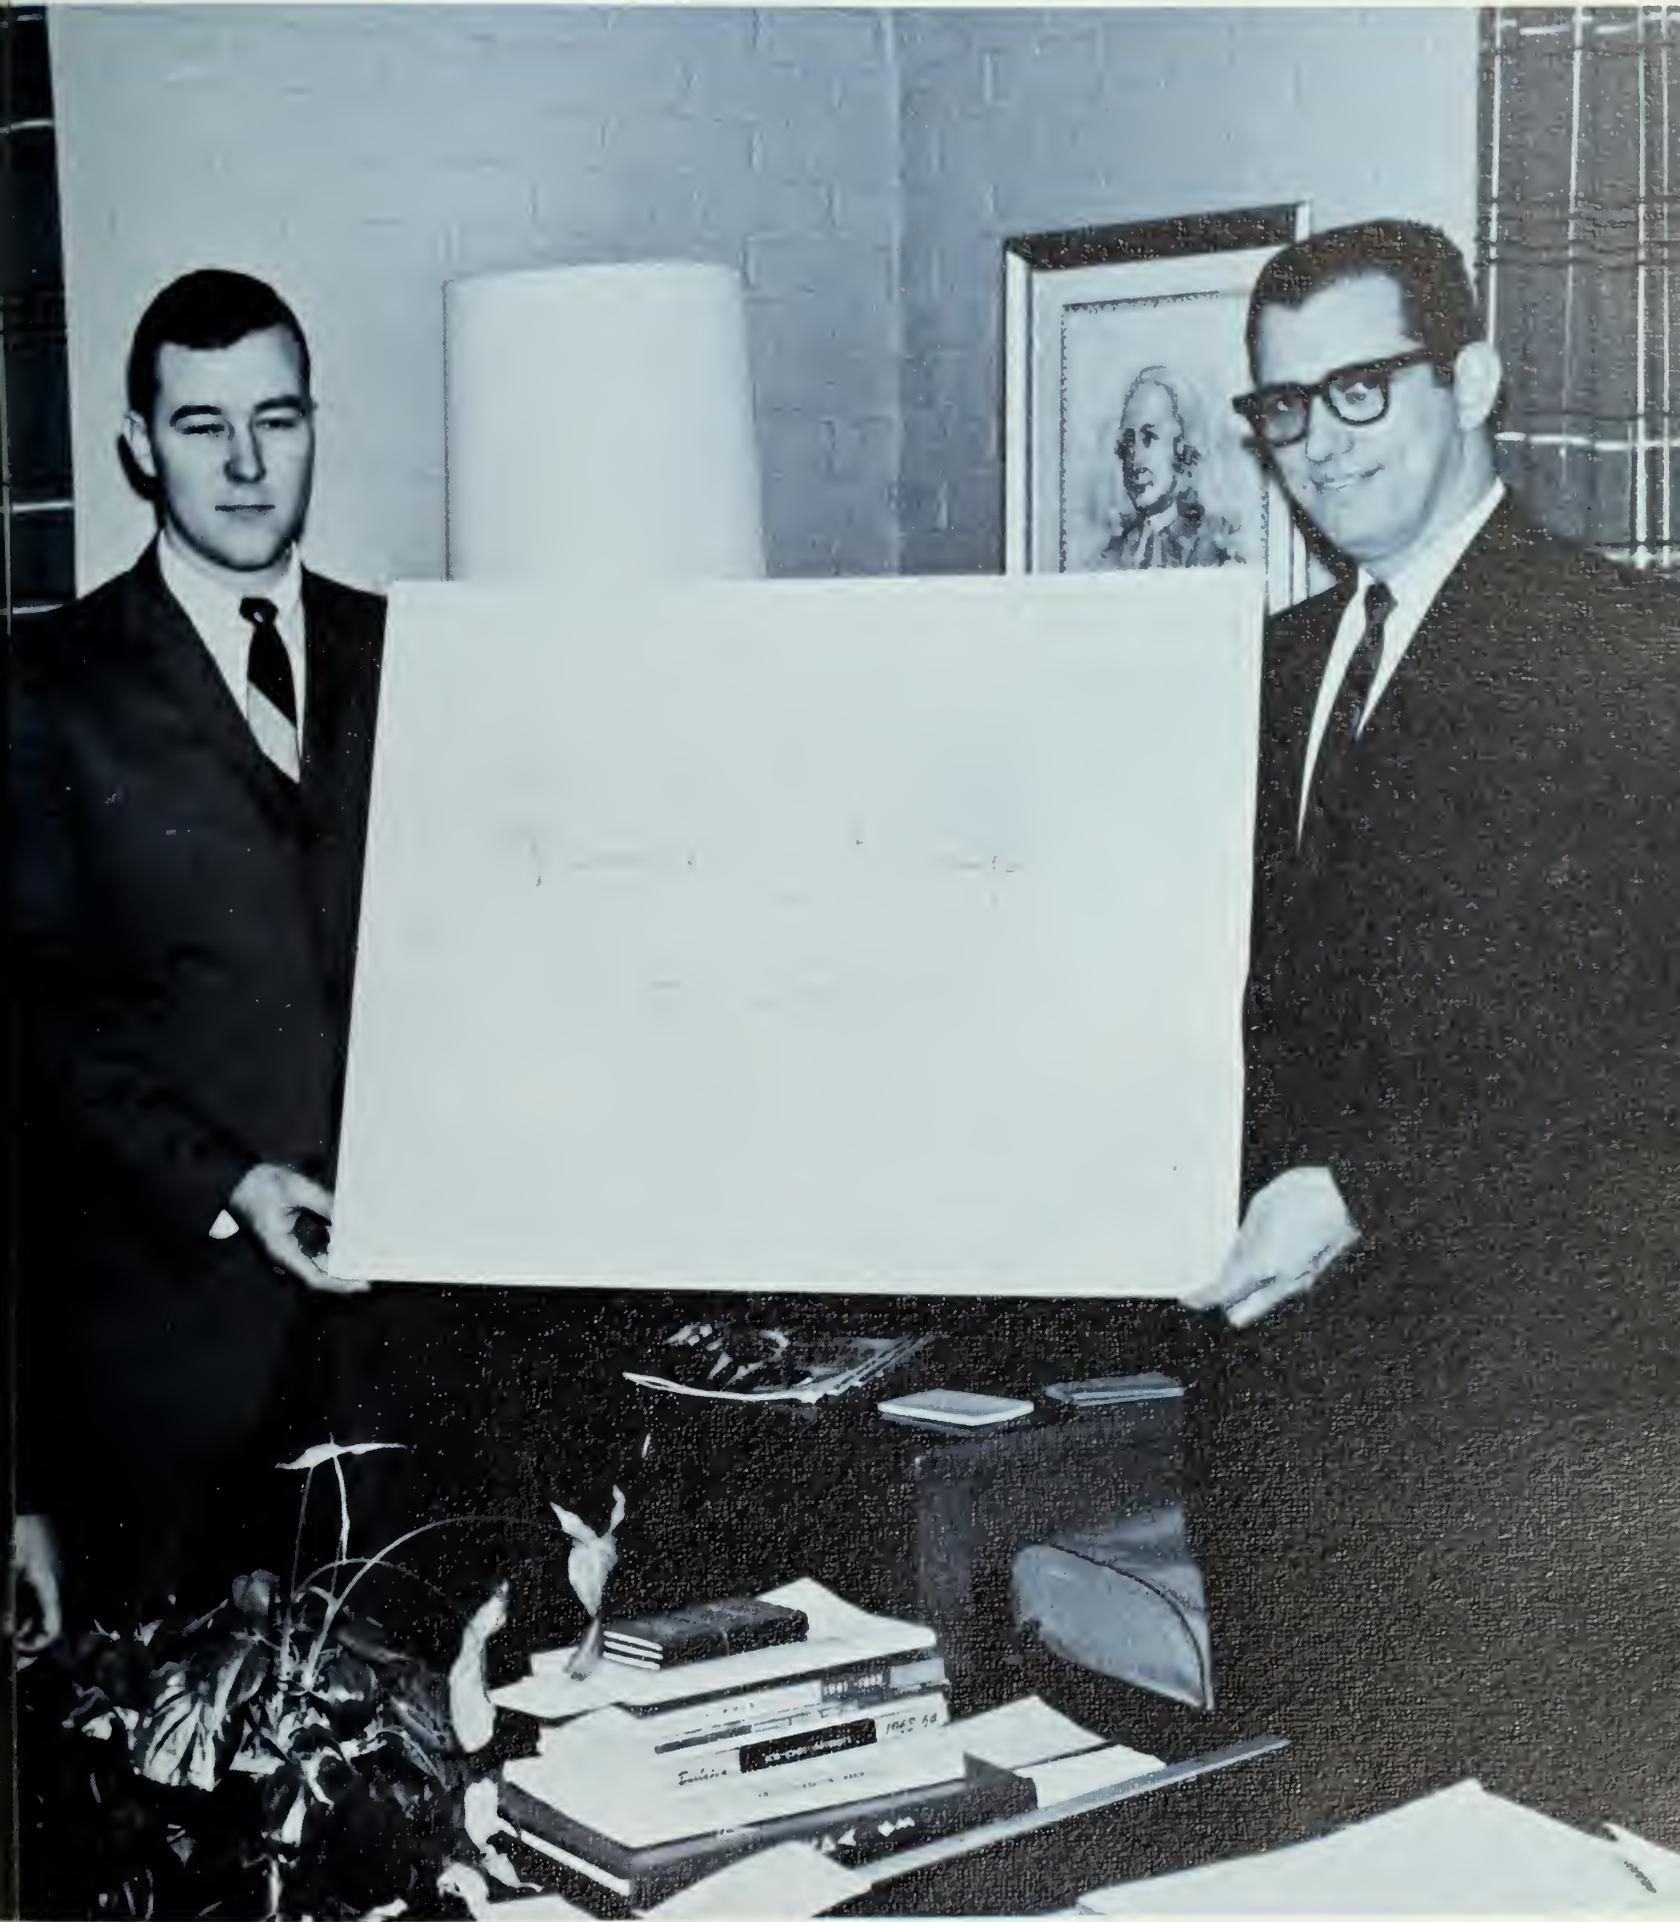

The Senior Recital presented by Miss Sidney Comfort included arias from oratorios and operas. She was assisted by Miss Annette Troup, pianist, and Professor James Van Hook, trumpeter. To climax the evening, Miss Comfort sang Let My Song Fill Your Heart by Charles; Gillis' Fine Eyes; Morning by Speaks.

Student Leadership Conference

Plans for the Physical Education Building were shown.

With Montgomery Bell State Park as a haven, representatives of both students and faculty meet to confer on those issues of current interest. Major points of discussion at this year's conference were community projects, elections, societies, orientation, the athletic program and the student center. These Leadership Conferences have proven to be a successful method of improving student-faculty relationships.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Booster's Club under the leadership of Rev. Edward Cox, president of the Trevecca Alumni Association is beginning with great enthusiasm. An alumnus who wishes to become a member gives $5.00 and receives a record album and subscriptions to Trev-Echoes and the Trevecca Messenger. Three-fourths of the money received will be applied to the proposed Physical Education Building and one-fourth to a matching scholarship fund. We appreciate this expression of loyalty as well as the splendid attendance at the annual Alumni Banquet at graduation time.

Rev. Edward Cox, president of the Alumni Association, presents the first official Booster's Club membership check to Rev. William Anderson, Assistant to the President.

Residence Halls Council

This council, elected by the students of the residence halls, serves as counsellors to the students and as an advisory committee to the Dean of Students. At the monthly meetings with the Dean, student problems and ways of solving them are discussed.

Recording New Endeavors

The DARDA Staff of 1964 presents to you a book of memories. For the presentation of these memories we selected the theme, "The Symphony of Life." For as the instruments of a symphony orchestra play together in beautiful harmony, so the individual instruments of Trevecca, students, faculty, staff, and supporters, must work together that we may, in the service of Christ, share the beauty and harmony of the Christian life with all the world.

Chapel Hour

At the eleventh hour each day, the College turns to prayer, turns to the work of collecting or re-collecting the scattered pieces of ourselves into the oneness of God's presence. And He is there.

Redecorated last summer as the result of the all-school project, the chapel, with soft organ music now being played before the service, is a beautiful place to worship. The services this year have been rich in spiritual blessings and exciting in a new way. Dr. Chambers and the Chapel Committee have done an excellent job in presenting well organized services with interesting themes and speakers.

"INSPIRATION INVADERS"

"Inspiration Invasions" are being made by the A Cappella Choir for the first time this year. In addition to the choir presentation at the central church of an area, the members disperse to the surrounding churches as quartets and trios to carry the spirit of Christ in music. This new outreach on weekends in addition to the regular spring tour enables many more churches to meet the students of Trevecca Nazarene College. Under the leadership of Professor Ramon Unruh, the choir is bound for the General Assembly in June.

The Treble-Tone Choir brings inspirational messages in song to the campus, the local churches, and the Southeastern Zone on Spring tour. This year they are wearing new forest green robes and singing, under the direction of Miss Barbara McClain, sacred songs, both classical and gospel. The Treble-Tones join the A Capella Choir and Men's Glee Club in presenting the annual spring concert.

Making its debut this year in Miss Lucy William's recital in November, the Brass Ensemble has become a popular group. Under the direction of Professor James Van Hook, it has accompanied the choirs in various concerts, and trios and quartets from the group have given inspirational musical numbers in chapel.

Trevecca's First Full Scholarship Quartet

The Trev-dores are traveling out in the zone every weekend singing in churches and encouraging young people to attend Trevecca Nazarene College. In addition to a full load in school and many practice hours every week, these men are also active as members of the A Cappella Choir and in athletics. Rev. William Anderson, Assistant to the President, accompanies them as advisor and speaker. This group acts as coordinators between the College and the people on the zone for such projects as the Booster's Club, the planned Physical Education Building, scholarship funds, and the new entrance way.

Christian Workers Association

Students of Trevecca College show an active interest in the spiritual needs of the people of Nashville. In more than twenty services each week in the hospitals, jails, rest homes, juvenile court, and the penitentiary, the gospel of Christ is sung and preached to needy souls. Supported by the students, the Christian Workers Association provides an excellent opportunity for personal soul winning, and it has become an integral part of the "symphony of life" at Trevecca College.

St. Paul on one of his missionary journeys left this word for those who remained behind: "Brethren, PRAY for us." Striving to be laborers together in the faith, the Missionary Prayer Band meets once a week to devote special attention to the prayer requests and needs of the men and women of God on the various mission fields. The band's leader for the year is Paul Hetrick. Membership includes all those who find the Friday noon prayer and fasting time an avenue of service.

Trevecca Missionary Fellowship

In our times the missionary is no longer asked to be the church's representative to an unknown land across a treacherous sea as he was a generation ago. The missionary sent to the world today is a fellow traveller amid the interchange of many people. Greater than ever before is the challenge to the consecrated man of God with the mission to evangelize the world. Technical skills, knowledge of God's world, and an understanding of the communistic threat comprise only part of the training necessary. The Missionary Fellowship is active in bringing this type of information and challenge to those who anticipate an appointment to the mission field. Leaders of the groups this year are: Paul Hetrick, President; Jack Clayton, Vice-President; Natalie Clayton, Secretary; Phil Neeley, Treasurer; Mary Meighan, Reporter.

Ministerial Association

Solemn, sacred, and serious is the life of the minister. Upon the head of each candidate falls the hallowed commission: Go ye and minister unto them, taking no thought for yourselves, what ye shall eat or what ye shall wear. No one enters into the awesome vows of divine orders without feeling the responsibility and the gravity of such an overwhelming task. But sufficient and faithful is He who calleth these, who have determined to do it through their full dedication. The man of God, called to serve, ordained to be a clergyman is candid in his intellectual honesty and compassionately devoted to his task. The Ministerial Association is designed to present the religion student with the high goals of his calling and to help him to participate in activities that further the realization of such goals. Elected to serve the association are: Leslie Bearden, President; Jack Clayton, Vice-President; Paul Hetrick, Secretary; Warren Ragland, Treasurer; Jess Midden-dorf, Reporter.

Clio Society

The humanities speak in history. No education can be complete without a study of the heritage of the past. The task of the Christian historian lies in being objective in his analysis of past events. He searches for truth and Christian meaning in history. These future historians search for knowledge in the records of the past and the news of today. Officers for the society are: Cathy Chilton, President; Jan Forman, Vice-President; Anne Bohler, Secretary; Leslie Farthing, Treasurer; Bill Johnson, Reporter.

Student Education Association

Education is an essential part of today's living. To make instructing a vocation is the goal of a large number of the students at Trevecca. In leading the minds of the youth of America lies the power of creating the social and character structures of the world tomorrow. Christian educators, deeply persuaded in the faith, are able to install morality and purpose in the souls of their charges. The S.E.A. presents professional guidance and information to the education major and endeavors to draw him into a scholastic fellowship. Directing the association this year are: Mary Moore, President; Carol Johnson, Vice-President; Nancy Wills, Secretary; Sara Casdorff, Treasurer; Marilyn Lillard, Reporter.

Music Club

Protesting the cacophony of the music in this era, the Music Club holds music to be an artistic and moving expression of the deeper level of life. From the depths of our appreciation for God and truest reality comes an inward pulse to create and enrich the fullest understanding and power of music. It is an experience of worship and adoration for the immortality of the beautiful rhapsody of God and His world. Good music becomes the symphonic stepping stones to intrinsic values. Club leaders for this year are: Lucy Williams, President; Cathy Chilton, Vice-President; Carla Brundige, Secretary; Joyce Gordon, Treasurer; Becky Great-house, Reporter.

Speech Club

Desiring to know and be known of others, the human soul pursues the study of rhetoric. Through communication with others man finds his place in the world and with it the responsibility of leading his fellowman. In rhetoric lies the power to still or stir the passions of men, a worthy goal of the cultured mind. Elected to serve this year are: Ann Jackson, President; Dennis Orner, Vice-President; Janet Vernon, Secretary; Eugenia Cloud, Treasurer; Kay Frey, Reporter.

Math Club

Collegers in the mathematics field find the scientific ideal. Here is the classical model of all the sciences. In the processes of this study lies the descriptive possibility necessary to the concept of universal operations. Math is the challenge of abstracts, and because of its area of performance assaying the order and regularity of functions, it can lead a person to appreciate the Ultimate Truth. Math club spokesmen for this year are: Wayne Dollar, President; Harry White, Vice-President; Suzanna McManus, Secretary; Kelly Flannery, Treasurer; Jean Cranshaw, Reporter.

Science Club

Collegians given to scientific studies have a yearning to discover the true understanding of nature and the order of things. The scientist also is acquiring a certain security that comes with comprehending the maximum predictability of things. He can see the purpose behind phenomenon when he allows his Christian concept of God's ultimate truth to temper his interpretation of created matter. Heading the club in this year's activities are: Roger Costa, President; Levis Nalley, Vice-President; Pat Hall, Secretary; Jeanne Thrasher, Treasurer; Gene Dalton, Reporter.

Kappa Sigma Phi

The educated mind arranges thoughts to best relate his mood of mind. He sees meaning in symbols and discovers feeling in phrases. Prose and poetry are worlds of adventure and recreation to him. To understand and to use one's native language creatively is a worthy ability demonstrative of a cultured intellect. The Kappa Sigma Phi brings collegians into a group where the interest in these things can be discussed and expanded. These interests and understandings will help each one to find a new facet to reality and living. Elected to serve the club are: Jean Cranshaw, President; Lynn Barnes, Vice-President; Margie Smith, Secretary; Joyce Bain, Treasurer; Jane Cranshaw, Reporter; Ruth Ellen May, Librarian; Mrs. K. W. Phillips, Sponsor.

Athletics

Athletics play a major role in the lives of Trevecca students. Rapidly becoming a part of the curriculum, sports activities have made considerable progress this year under the leadership of Trevecca Athletic Association president, Jim Knight. The most noted accomplishment of the Athletic department was the "kicking off" of the drive for the new Physical Education Building.

T. A. A. EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council co-ordinates the activities of the Trevecca Athletic Association and attempts to encourage student participation.

The purpose of the Trevecca Athletic Association is to provide physical education for students through its intramural sports. Three societies, each of which includes both men and women, are provided for this purpose. Sports include football, basketball, softball, tennis, track, ping-pong, volleyball, and chess. Each year the societies draft the incoming freshmen for their teams.

FIRST ROW: Beverly Moore, Jean Cranshaw, Eugenia Cloud, Mary Blume.

Greek Athletic Societies

Alpha

The Alpha society, under the leadership of Society chairman, Beverly Moore, finished second in football and men's basketball, and first in women's basketball. Beverly also served as head cheerleader.

FIRST Row: Glenn Wheaton, Sandra Murphree, Patty Wyatt, Sylvia Jamison. Beverly Moore, Jean Cranshaw, Joyce Andrews, Larry Mason, Lester Byington. SECOND Row: Bill Ammons, Vernon Henderson, Fred Nutter, David Bays, Ruth Ellen May, Jan Milby, Mary Blume, Art Storey, Dan Mills, Ray Byrd, Billy Joe Richey, Bobby Sutton, Troy Miley.

Beta

The Beta society, led by chairman Lloyd Manning, fought its way to the championship in both football and basketball. Carol Richardson was the Beta head cheerleader.

Delta

The Delta society placed third in both football and basketball but placed several athletes on the all-star teams. Jan Forman served as society chairman and Glenda Harper was head cheerleader.

Football Frolic

FIRST Row: Vernon Henderson, Bob Sutton, Fred Nutter, David Bays, Bill Johnson. SECOND Row: Dan Mills, Troy Miley, Lester Byington, Bill Ammons, Ray Byrd.

Alpha

Lester Byington and Ray Byrd served as co-captains. Elected to the All-Star team were David Bays, Ray Byrd, Lester Byington, and Glenn Wheaton.

Beta

The Beta Society was captained by Eddie Patterson. Making the all-star team were Roger Costa, Jim Knight, Larry Knight, and Eddie Patterson. Jim Knight was voted Lineman of the Year.

Delta

Although they were ably led by captain Wayne Dollar, the Delta Society lost some key players through injuries. Dollar also made the all-star team and was Back of the Year.

The football championship had to be decided in a playoff game between the Alpha society and the Beta society. The Betas defeated the Alphas 14 to 8 and clinched first place with a 9-6 record. The Alphas placed second with 8 wins and 7 losses, and the Delta team, 5-9, finished third.

Football jerseys, cheerleader uniforms, and pep rallies created added enthusiasm. A new era is dawning in Trevecca athletics.

Alpha halfback David Bays rips the Beta line for a short gain.

Alpha quarter Ray Byrd drops back to pass against the Beta defense.

Thrill-Packed Moments

Delta end Jim Hendershot eludes Alpha defender Ray Byrd to snare a pass from quarterback Wayne Dollar.

Halfback Dick Bailey, let by blockers Larry Knight and Carl Taylor, turns the end on the Beta "Roll-out" play.

Heroes of the Hardwood

Alpha

The Alpha team, hampered by an injury to last year's Most Valuable Player, Ed Sisson, managed to win four games while losing eight. Three players, Captain Lester Byington, Ed Sisson, and Don Hale finished with scoring averages in double figures. Sisson was voted to the First-team All-stars. Byington and Hale made the second team.

FIRST Row: Fred Nutter, Billy Joe Richey, Lester Byington, Glenn Wheaton. SECOND Row: Dennis Orner, Ed Sisson, Bill Ammons, Don Hale.

Beta

For the fourth straight year the Beta team copped the basketball crown. Captain Lloyd Manning led the league in scoring with a 30.5 average. Everett Hanner, Jim Knight, and Larry Knight also averaged better than ten points per game. Manning and Jim Knight represented the Beta society on the All-Star First team. Manning was voted Most Valuable Player in the league. Hanner and Larry Knight made the All-Star second team.

Delta

With the addition of 6' 4" Jim Hendershot and Jim Brackett, the Delta team improved from last year's 0-10 record to a 3-11 record for this season. Hendershot led in scoring and rebounding, but Captain Jan Forman also averaged more than twenty points per game and was the main cog in the Delta man-to-man defense. Hendershot and Forman were chosen to the All-Star First team. Brackett was elected to the second team.

Delta forward Jan Forman pumps a long one-hander from the corner.

Alpha forward Don Hale, guarded closely by Beta forward Roger Costa, pops a one-hand jump shot good for two quick points.

Everett Hanner, Beta center, and Glenn Wheaton, Alpha forward, wrestle for a rebound after a shot by Alpha center Ed Sisson.

Breaks of the Game

Beta guard Lloyd Manning, attempts to shoot over Delta forward Jim Brackett.

Alpha

The first-ranked Alpha team under the leadership of Captain Bev Moore ran away with the girls' championship in basketball again this year. With the hot shooting of top scorer Phyllis Huston and excellent playmaking by Most Valuable Player Bev Moore, the Alphas remained undefeated. To round the season off nicely for the Alphas, they were able to place five of their members on the seven-member All-Star team. These girls were Mary Blume, Jean Cranshaw, Phyllis Huston, Beverly Moore, and Nancy Swafford. The Alphas finished with a 5-0 record.

Phyllis Huston, Carol Woody, Ann Bohler, Sally Wyrick, Mary Blume, Jean Cranshaw, Beverly Moore, Sandra Murphree.

Beta

Though the Beta girls fought hard to gain the championship title from the Alphas, they had to settle for a season ranking of second in the three-society league. Captain Eugenia Cloud paced the Beta team to a 2-3 record for the 1964 season. The Betas placed forward Janet Vernon on the All-Star team, and Ruth Downing, Eugenia Cloud, Freda Weaver, and Sara Hill made the second team.

Esther Farmer, Freda Weaver, Jo Anne Webb, Janet Vernon, Nancy Wills, Pam Dinkins, Ruth Downing, Connie Gordon, Sara Hill, Karen Unruh, Eugenia Cloud, Joyce Fulenwider.

Delta

The Delta girls' basketball team ranking of third in the league does not truly depict their seasonal steam and stamina. Even though they finished the season with a 0-4 record, some close-scoring games were played at First Church gymnasium with Captain Jan Osborne inspiring the Delta girls to play harder. And their energetic plays were not in vain; forward Neva Hudson made the All-Star team while junior Glenda Harper made the second squad of girls' basketball All-Stars.

Jan Osborne, Joyce Gordon, Glenda Harper, Gail Hilliard, Becky Greathouse, Neva Hudson, Judy Drake.

Belles of Basketball

Neva Hudson of the Deltas calmly drops in a foul shot in a game against the Betas.

Delta Neva Hudson and Alpha Bev Moore grapple furiously for a rebound during the excitement of a Friday night game.

Phyllis Huston, Alpha forward, drives past Glenda Harper of the Deltas for two points.

Delta Judy Drake fires a two-hander from the foul circle as Joyce Fulenwider of the Betas tries in vain to guard her.

Beta shortstop Carl Taylor slides in just ahead of the tag by Alpha catcher Lester Byington.

Softball

As spring rolls around and softball season begins, the Deltas and the Alphas will be out to regain the championship from the Beta squad. Last year the Alphas placed second and the Deltas third. New softball jerseys will provide initiative for the players. Ladies' softball will also become a major sport this spring.

Ping Pong

Each spring the Trevecca Athletic Association sponsors a ping pong tournament and the winner is presented a trophy at the annual T.A.A. Banquet. Singles champion Leslie Bearden will be returning to defend his title against Jim Bearden, Jerry Appleby, and newcomer Jim Hendershot.

Eddie Patterson and Jim Hendershot team up for a winning combination in a game of doubles.

Cheerleaders

Beta

Carolyn Kent, Janet Vernon, Carol Richardson, Carol Goodwin, Eugenia Cloud, Jo Anne Webb, Deanie Witherspoon.

Delta

Ann Tucker, Linda Hill, Nancy Mastin, Glenda Harper, Cleta Cline, Neva Hudson, Judy Drake.

Alpha

Students Center Activities

The student center affords various activities for rainy days or for relaxing recreation. Parlor games, chess, music, and ping-pong are provided.

Also, during such activities as Twirp Week, Citizenship Week, and Etiquette Week, the student center is used for programs, skits, and socials.

Roger Costa and Dick Bailey absorb themselves in an intellectual game of chess aided by scholars Jim and Larry Knight.

BOOSTER PAGE

Many are those who have committed and dedicated themselves to TNC. These of which we write are not the ones you see in the classrooms or attending chapel. Neither do they dine in the college cafeteria nor even witness the athletic events of our college; but their support has helped to make our school what it is today. Some are alumni, some are the parents of students attending TNC, and others are considered to be close friends. These and many others make up the support and backing of Our College. They are:

A Memorable Year

• Congratulations to the Student Body and Faculty of Trevecca Nazarene College upon the completion of another outstanding year of accomplishments.

• The Staff of your annual has worked exceedingly hard to give you a superb book that portrays the highlights of memorable activities. To preserve this excellent literary and photographic record, the best grades of material have been combined with skilled workmanship to provide the finest quality yearbook.

• We are proud that the 1964 Staff elected us to help design, print and bind the DARDA. We have earnestly endeavored to fulfill the confidence placed in us.
